SUBJ: PRESS RELEASE by Sheriff Joe Lester
Cleveland County deputies urge safety on Halloween

Halloween is just a few days away.

That means on Oct. 31, young pirates, princesses and even a few ghosts and goblins will trek out ready to fill their bags with treats. Children in Norman, Noble, Lexington, Moore and Oklahoma City will visit neighborhoods as they trick-or-treat.

Cleveland County sheriff's deputies want kids to enjoy the holiday and offer a few safety reminders:

- Wear costumes made of flame-retardant material
- Make sure costumes are light reflective
- Carry a flashlight
- Never go into a stranger's home
- Trick-or-treat with an adult
- Don't eat unwrapped candy

Sheriff Joe Lester wishes everyone a safe and Happy Halloween.

"I want all children to have fun as they trick-or-treat through neighborhoods but please remember these safety tips," Lester said.
